

As a working member of the news media now for more than 10 years I can tell you that the quality, accuracy and fairness of the media has diminished as large non-news focused corporations became media owners. Please do not stifle any more voices or allow more stories to be slanted based on what is best for large conglomerates.